Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The specification fails to teach the step of sending information automatically into fields.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Tognazzini 5739512.

As per the limitations of claims 1,2,4-10, Tognazzini teaches the method of swiping a card with the user's email address encoded therein and having information (a genus for the information of claims 5-6) related to a transaction sent to the user's email. The examiner is reading the prior art email document to be an expense report. (See, column 2, lines 22-26 and column 6, lines 62-67.)

Art Unit: 3624

As per claim 3, the information can be deleted by, for example, the merchant.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Tognazzini.

The prior art fails to teach a wireless device. The examiner takes official notice that wireless credit card readers are well known species of the credit card readers taught by Tognazzini. It would have been obvious for one skilled in the art to use a wireless device as motivated by the need record expenses such as taxi fares.

For the purposes of clarification only (citing the best prior art) and not based upon issues on the merits, the previous office action under this paragraph has been withdrawn.
